Somewhere Between

Somewhere Between celebrates the joy that music brings to life with a mix of good-time acoustic blues, country, bluegrass, and swing. The band's name comes from the type of music we play...it's "somewhere between". You'll hear songs that are sad, sweet, and funny, plus some straight ahead bluegrass standards. Our goal is to be sure everyone has a good time!

Core members Mark Rauch, Chris Rasmussen, and Julie Hukee enjoy a long musical history together from local bluegrass jams and festivals. For the Butteville Store show they will be joined by two excellent musicians: newest band member Chuck Springer on bass (and maybe some banjo) and vocals, and Linda Sickler on dobro and vocals.
